Personal Background

My name is Abeera, and I am a passionate and curious learner with a deep interest in technology, artificial intelligence, and machine learning. I enjoy exploring how advanced systems can solve real-world problems and improve lives. I live in lahore and study in giki. I am currently interning at netsol

---

Academic Journey

I am currently a student dedicated to mastering concepts in AI, data science, and software engineering. My projects span across various domains, including:

- Natural Language Processing (NLP)
- Computer Vision
- Reinforcement Learning
- Deep Learning